

Req 66521
Program Manager, Investigations
Calabasas, CA

Intuit is ranked #1 Most Admired Software Company by Fortune, and #43 on Fortune's Top 100 companies to work for. Intuit is a company that practices what it preaches and values its employees. Its culture encourages and facilitates work-life balance, a learning and development environment, and giving back to the community. Intuit offers excellent pay & benefits, a generous 401K matching program, & continuing education.

Intuit Inc. (NASDAQ: INTU) is the leading provider of financial software and Web-based services for consumers, small businesses and accounting professionals. Its flagship products and services --- including QuickBooks, and TurboTax --- simplify personal finance, small business management, payroll processing, tax preparation and filing. Founded in 1983, Intuit has annual revenues of nearly $3 billion and reaches over 25 million customers with over 8,000 employees. For additional information about our company and recent initiatives, please visit our website at www.Intuit.com.

Primary Responsibilities:
Essential Functions of Role:

- Support global establishment of investigative function through definition of role and responsibilities, cross-functional collaboration, and the implementation of governance, work flow process, and.
- Lead all technical investigations in support of HR legal, and business requirements.
- Support business units in technical / forensic investigations.
- Coordinate appropriate investigation resources from business units, external resources, and functions to conduct complex investigations.
- Create and track investigations, losses, and improvements, with policy, key measures and recommendations via a score card for regular reporting to senior leadership.
- Ensure post mortem investigative recommendations are fully implemented.
- Develop and maintain strong contacts with industry, regulatory and law enforcement personnel responsible for enforcement and oversight.
- Provide regular fraud risk assessments, analysis and recommendations.
- In partnership with the Incident Management, assists in the development of incident management policy, plans and crisis simulation exercises designed to enhance the response to major events.
- Lead Corporate Security efforts in support of the pre-employment screening process.

Qualifications:

- Minimum of 5-7 years of investigative or intelligence experience focused with 2-3 years of computer forensics experience.
- Detailed report preparation experience.
- Prior Experience with EnCase (certified preferred), FTK, ILook, Sleuth Kit/Autopsy, or Other Computer Forensic Tools

Education:

- College degree in related field.
- Masters preferred.
- Law enforcement or intelligence agency experience.
- Forensics certifications.

Required skills include:

- Must be a strong communicator and influencer, capable of interacting and leading change with senior leaders at Intuit.
- Must be a strong leader capable of leading divergent teams and stakeholders and capitalize on them to achieve tangible results.
- Must have great business acumen and judgment and possess the confidence to strongly influence decision making processes.
- Deep understanding of the internal and external environment and proactively adapt to these changes.
- Must be adept at organizing and leading successful projects through the use of process excellence methodologies, including the ability to create the platform for and managing change.
- Must be comfortable and adept at balancing risk and opportunity, and thinking creatively to enable Intuit to make smart decisions.
- Must also be comfortable in an environment of change.
- Requires good teaching and training skills.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN BEING CONSIDERED FOR THIS POSITION, CLICK THE LINK BELOW TO SEND YOUR RESUME DIRECTLY TO THE MANAGER:

<http://www.intuit.apply2jobs.com/index.cfm?fuseaction=mExternal.showJob&RID=66521&CurrentPage=1>