GET IN THE GAME

For Twenty Minutes, It's Your Race. You have twenty minutes to match wits with your fellow fans. Start by picking up your Daily Racing Guide. It contains all the clues you need to figure out the winners: how fast the horses have run previously, at what distance, who the jockey is along with the opening odds and how the experts see the race. Head down to the Paddock. Watch your horse and jockey prepare. Still feel good? Check the tote board. Here's where you see what your fellow players are thinking. Are the odds changing? Find out whether people are thinking like you or if you're standing alone on the courage of your conviction. What clues do you use to figure out the winner? Who's riding the horse? Has he ridden him before? With what result? How will you play? To Win? To Show? Maybe an Exacta? Once you're ready to stop by one of our betting windows, just state the track, the race number, the amount, type of bet, and the horse's number. You've done all that you can. Now, it's out of your hands... for the next two minutes, it's in theirs.

Wagering Vouchers. A way to provide your guests funds to bet on the races. Available in denominations of $2, $5, $10, $20 and $50.

Trophy Presentation. A Trophy Presentation includes naming a race in the Daily Racing Guide and six keepsake photographs of guests in the Winner's Circle. $300 for the presentation. Maximum of 6 guests.

Gift Certificates. Good for food, drink, wagering and gift shop merchandise. Available in denominations of $5, $10, $20.

Parking Upgrades. Preferred Parking $5. Valet Parking $10.

Handicapping Horsepower. Learn more about the fascinating world of horse racing from professional analysts who live and breathe the game. Joe Kristufek (Daily Herald and horseplayernow.com), Marcus Hersh (Daily Racing Form) and Ron Uchman (Arlington Park website) are available to work within the social setting of your group outing. In addition to explaining the fundamentals of the sport, our experts will give a concise lesson on how to read the program, reveal simple ways to wager that are both fun and potentially profitable, and answer any and all questions the group may have. The expert host will also give you a VIP tour of Arlington's gorgeous paddock area during preparations for a live race with a tour of two hours or more. Enhance your Arlington experience by spending the day with a professional. With knowledge comes horsepower! $125 per hour.
