

Hello to All;

Again, we enjoyed a wonderful pot luck at the Ingebright's 62 acre estate at Granite Falls marred only by the absence of Laurine. Laurine was still in rehab after fracturing her femur. The event is immortalized below, thanks to the photography of Ted Wagner.

See you all Wednesday noon, at Arnie's in Edmonds,

Steve and Hope

Hope and Steve

Hope and her Mother, Birda

Steve, Phyllis, Judy and Ken

Ken, Dick and Jim

Judy and Lana

Deborah and "Cupcake"

Wayne observing Martha signing Laurine's get well card on Birde's purse.

Top, L to R: Wayne Osborne, Ken Weber, John Mohr, Earl Ingebright, Judy Groome, Jim Foster, Fred Riffey and Deborah Hutchinson. Next row: Phyllis weber, Dick Beidle, Hope Schneringer, Dian Mohr and Lana Foster. Bottom row:

The gang, again!

Deborah and Fred

Earl, John and Diane

Diane and Earl

Wayne and Martha