This month, with many thanks to Steve and Hope Schneringer for making the arrangements, we'll meet at the Muckleshoot Casino, 2402 Auburn Way South, Auburn, WA, on June 20. As usual, start time is 11:30 am, provided you are able to get past the slots to restaurant, where we will wheedle a bit and order provisions around noon. Directions to the Muckleshoot Casino for the locals, use the Valley Freeway for traveling north or south to State Route 18 (SR18) in Auburn, go onto SR18 and exit at Auburn Way South (SRI 64), stay on Auburn Way South about two miles; the Muckleshoot Casino will be on your left. For non-locals, consider using 1-5 from north or south, exit 1-5 (Exit 142B) onto SR18 and stay on SR 18 to Auburn Way South and exit at that point staying on Auburn Way South for the two miles, or so, to the casino. Good luck reaching your destination and good luck while you are there. Win super big!

Our meeting last month, on May 16, at Tony Roma's in north Seattle was reveling for everyone there. Four stars to "Mr. Roma" for good food and great service! Those in attendance and imbibing in social courtesies at the luncheon were Dick & Ruth Bogue, Judy Groome & Ted Wagner, Duane & Barbara Hazen, Earl & Laurine Ingebright, Jane & Al McMahan, Wayne & Martha Osborne, Fred Riffey, Steve & Hope Schneringer, Ken & Phyllis Weber.

"Things have been getting out of hand on The Gaza Strip, and today there was a big riot, with pushing, shoving, punching, looting and gun play. So it was a lot like Father's Day shopping at Wal-Mart."

"The Republicans have blocked the Senate's no-confidence vote on Attorney

General Gonzales. And his staff is telling the Attorney General not to worry. And why should he? It's just the Senate that's lost confidence in him. President Bush is still going strong and he has a whole country that's lost confidence in him.
